Hello everyone,

Have I told you lately how wonderful your kids are? :) We had a very nice, and quick, first assembly this morning and everyone did very well. I have heard the term 'smooth' thrown around quite a bit this week when referring to our start up this year. I thank you all for your role in this as well.

You should have seen my email earlier about the Cobb's bread donation program continuing here at Arden. It will now be Fridays that the bread is available in our foyer during the day and outside after school.

Wheelie Wednesday will start up again this coming Wed. We will once again have K-2's at first recess and 3-5's at second recess. Please park as best you can towards the back of the church. We will try to have some extra supervision this year coming across the road but also ask you to be extra careful at that intersection.

I guess this is about the time that I tell/remind you that we here at Arden like to send the kids out in all kinds of weather. It has got to be a pretty good raging storm out there for us to keep them from getting their fresh air. So...please make sure to check the weather and do your best to send them with boots and raingear.

Alright...that is all I can think of right now. Please let me know if I missed anything.
