

10 Careers in Math to Explore

01. Civil Engineer

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A civil engineer designs and oversees construction projects like bridges and roads, using math to calculate load, stress, and material requirements.

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A chartered accountant manages financial records/audits, using math to analyze financial data, prepare statements, and ensure accuracy.

02. Chartered Accountant

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A software developer creates programs and applications, using math to write algorithms and solve computational problems.

03. Software Developer

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

An electrical engineer designs and develops electrical systems, using math to calculate voltage, resistance, and current in circuits.

04. Electrical Engineer

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A financial sales representative sells financial products, using math to analyze interest rates, returns, and investment options for clients.

05. Financial Sales Representative

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A web developer builds websites, using math for layout design, responsive elements, and optimizing performance.

06. Web Developer & Programmer

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A CFO oversees a company's financial operations, using math to create budgets, forecasts, and financial strategies.

07. Chief Financial Officer

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

A bookkeeper records financial transactions, using math to ensure all debits and credits are accurate in financial reports.

08. Bookkeeper

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

An accounting clerk assists with processing financial transactions, using math to calculate totals, balances, and account entries.

09. Accounting Clerk

Video (click Here)

Salaries, skills & education (click Here)

An account manager handles client accounts and contracts, using math to track sales, budgets, and pricing structures.

10. Account Manager

Comox Valley Schools
A Community of Learners
INNOVATIVE • INQUISITIVE • INCLUSIVE

*Information from WorkBC
<https://www.workbc.ca/plan-career/career-trek-videos>