

Helpful Websites for Scholarships & Bursaries

You may want to create a separate email address to be used only for these websites. Some students have reported receiving constant emails from some of these groups.

www.educationplanner.ca

- Helps students find programs in post-secondary institutions in BC. Provides information about program length and tuition costs.
- Website to apply to most BC institutions.
- Also has a list of scholarships and bursaries. Click “PLAN” and then “Finance” and “Scholarships and Bursaries”

www.schoolfinder.com

Helps students find programs and post-secondary institutions in Canada and around the world. This site also has information about scholarships (under “Resources”).

www.unican.ca

Universities Canada administers more than 130 scholarships, fellowships, and internship programs on behalf of governments, foundations, and private sector companies. Check to see if the UNICAN administers scholarships for parent’s place of employment. Also has a link for international students.

www.scholarshipscanada.com

A large database of financial aid. Students can check monthly for scholarships and bursaries from high school through to the end of their undergraduate studies.

scholartree.ca

Similar format as Scholarships Canada.

www.scholarshipscanadian.com

This site provides information about Canadian PSI scholarships and links for students planning to enter post-secondary studies. The site also includes a link for international students.

https://yconic.com (formerly studentawards.com)

Information about scholarships and contests. There is even a discussion board where students can get post-secondary questions answered.

Studentaidbc.ca

BC student assistance. This is a needs-based program which will not cover all post-secondary expenses. You must have a valid BC Services Card.

www.educationau-incanada.ca

International students can search for scholarship information to institutions within Canada. This is found under “Find Scholarships”.

www.studyincanada.ca

Canadian scholarships for international students

Applying to PSI in Canada

You can apply to colleges and universities online at their website or...

- 1) www.educationplanner.ca BC colleges and universities application centre
- 2) http://www.ouac.on.ca/ouac-105 Ontario Universities’ Application Centre
- 3) http://applyalberta.ca Alberta’s application centre

www.bctransferguide.ca

This helps students to research what courses will be accepted at another institution or province.